IGNITE YOUR PASSION

Apply to earn an all-expenses-paid Earthwatch Expedition through the IGNITE Los Angeles Student Science Awards.

TO APPLY, VISIT: earthwatch.org/ignite
Earthwatch’s innovative IGNITE program seeks student applicants from high schools in the greater Los Angeles region to join the expedition of a lifetime. The program awards deserving students with an all-expenses-paid opportunity to participate in hands-on, scientific research in remote locations across the United States.

ARE YOU THE IDEAL CANDIDATE?

• A high school sophomore or junior from greater Los Angeles who will be between ages 15–18 in the summer of 2020
• A creative thinker who is motivated in the classroom
• A team player who is excited to work with other teens
• A student who is able to spend 12–14 days away from home during the summer of 2020
